The selection process

The selection of the scholarship holders to be funded is made by the study committee.

The decision on funding is based on the following selection criteria in accordance with § 3 StipG in conjunction with § 2 StipV and § 6 para. 2 of the funding guidelines for the awarding of Deutschlandstipendien at the TU Ilmenau:

The decision on funding is based on a weighting of the specified criteria in accordance with a university evaluation system.

Only complete applications will be considered for selection.

The authorisation

Information on the approval of a Deutschlandstipendium will be provided in mid-October.

The scholarship is granted for two semesters (approval period). Before the end of the approval period, an application for subsequent approval can be submitted within the new application period. The scholarship can be granted until the end of the (individual) standard period of study at the longest (= maximum funding period).

There is no legal entitlement to the scholarship.

In accordance with § 4 StipG, the Deutschlandstipendium will not be granted if a talent or performance-related grant is already being received from another institution (exclusion of double funding). This does not apply in the case of a de minimis limit of EUR 30 / month.

The payout

The scholarship will be paid as soon as and insofar as sufficient private and public scholarship funds are available. The scholarship is paid out in monthly instalments at the beginning of the approval period on the basis of the award decision. The scholarship is paid independently of income and parents and is not offset against BAföG.

The first payment will be made retrospectively in December - after the scholarships have been awarded in November.

Scholarship holders are expected to participate in 1-2 events in the form of scholarship holder meetings or other events.
events of the scholarship programme per semester.
